Song of the Month

Psalm 126

—[Verse:1]—

Our mouths they were filled,
Filled with laughter

Our tongues they were loosed,
Loosed with joy

Restore us, O Lord
Restore us, O Lord

—[Chorus:1]—

Although we are weeping
Lord, help us keep sowing

The seeds of Your Kingdom
For the day You will reap them

Your sheaves we will carry
Lord, please do not tarry

All those who sow weeping
Will go out with songs of joy

—[Verse:2]—

The nations will say,
"He has done great things!"

The nations will sing
Songs of joy

Restore us, O Lord
Restore us, O Lord

—[Chorus:1]—

—[Ending:1]—

All those who sow weeping

“Too often, we say we are defeated by this or that sin. No, we are not defeated. We are simply disobedient. It might be good if we stop using the terms victory and defeat to describe our progress in holiness. Rather, we should use the terms obedience and disobedience. When I say I am defeated by some sin, I am unconsciously slipping out from under my responsibility. I am saying something outside of me has defeated me. But when I say I am disobedient, that places the responsibility for my sin squarely on me. We may in fact be defeated, but the reason we are defeated is because we have chosen to disobey.

We need to brace ourselves up and to realize that we are responsible for thoughts, attitudes, and actions. We need to reckon on the fact that we died to sin's reign, that it no longer has any dominion over us, that God has united us with the risen Christ in all His power and has given us the Holy Spirit to work in us. Only as we accept our responsibility and appropriate God's provisions will we make any progress in our pursuit of holiness.”
