Song of the Month

All Glory Be to Christ

—[Verse:1]—

Should nothing of our efforts stand,
No legacy survive;
Unless the Lord does raise the house,
In vain its builders strive.

To you who boast tomorrow's gain,
Tell me what is your life?
A mist that vanishes at dawn:
All glory be to Christ.

—[Chorus:1]—

All glory be to Christ our king!
All glory be to Christ!
His rule and reign we'll ever sing,
All glory be to Christ!

—[Verse:2]—

His will be done, His kingdom come,
On earth as is above,
Who is Himself our daily bread;
Praise Him, the Lord of love.

Let living water satisfy
The thirsty without price;
We'll take a cup of kindness yet;
All glory be to Christ.

—[Chorus:1]—

—[Verse:3]—

When on the day the great I Am,
The faithful and the true,
The Lamb who was for sinners slain,
Is making all things new.

Behold, our God shall live with us
And be our steadfast light.
And we shall e're his people be;
All glory be to Christ.

—[Chorus:1]—

—[Repeat Chorus:1]—

If we could get out of our heads the idea that the future is something God simply knows and get into our heads the idea that the future is a place where God already is, that He doesn't just know about the past and see the present and know about the future, but that He stands outside of time and reigns over all of it sovereignly, what would we have to be anxious about?

“Worship gatherings are not always spectacular, but they are always supernatural. And if a church looks for or works for the spectacular, she may miss the supernatural. If a person enters a gathering to be wowed with something impressive, with a style that fits him just right, with an order of service and song selection designed just the right way, that person may miss the supernatural presence of God. Worship is supernatural whenever people come hungry to respond, react, and receive from God for who He is and what He has done. A church worshipping as a Creature of the Word doesn't show up to perform or be entertained; she comes desperate and needy, thirsty for grace, receiving from the Lord and the body of Christ, and then gratefully receiving what she needs as she offers her praise—the only proper response to the God who saves us.”

New City Catechism

Question #16:

What is sin?

Answer:

Sin is rejecting or ignoring God in the world he created, rebelling against him by living without reference to him, not being or doing what he requires in his law—resulting in our death and the disintegration of all creation.

Memory Verse

1 John 3:4

Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness.
